The city of Lincoln and the State, as well, paid a rare tribute to its townsman, Louis Wessel, Jr., by sending a distinguished delegation to St. Joseph, Mo., Wednesday, to witness the Ehrlich-Wessel marriage ceremony. Mr. Wessel's friends in St. Joe could not but have been flattered by the presence of such a large number of prominent citizens of Missouri's sister State.

At half past seven o'clock Wednesday evening the synagogue was filled with an array of youth and beauty, both from home and abroad, such as has not been seen in the staid old Missouri town for many a day. Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Omaha, Nebraska City, Lincoln and many other points contributed their share in lending brilliancy and lustre to the happy occasion. The relatives of both bride and groom were proud to come from far away eastern and northern homes to do honor to the glad event, and the city of St. Joe was represented by nearly two hundred of its most prominent and respected citizens. Rev. Dr. Schwab officiated at the ceremony, which was impressively rendered after the form of the Reformed church. Surrounding the wedding couple were nearly thirty of the near relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Emma Ehrlich, the bride, was superbly dressed, as befitting the occasion, her beauty and attractive presence compelling widespread admiration. Upon the conclusion of the ceremony the entire party were driven to the Pacific hotel, the leading hotel of the city, where a reception lasting one hour was held. Congratulations and expressions of good will and best wishes were spontaneous and profuse, Mr. and Mrs. Wessel being showered with these friendly demonstrations of respect and approval. Shortly after nine o'clock a procession was formed, and to the beautiful strains of the orchestra the company marched to the banqueting hall, where covers were laid for two hundred guests. After a handsome collation, toasts were responded to as follows:

"The Bride," Rev. Dr. Schwab. "The Groom," Mr. H. M. Bushnell of Lincoln. "Nebraska vs. Missouri," Gov. John M. Thayer. "St. Joseph; Our Loss," Mayor W. M. Sheppard. "Lincoln; Our Gain," Mayor A. H. Weir. "A Woman's Love," Mr. A. C. Ziemer, Lincoln. "A Legal View of It," Mr. J. D. Epstein. Congressman W. J. Bryan, of this city, who was down for a contest, was detained at home by business, but sent an interesting communication, which was read by Mr. Ziemer. An elegant ball followed the banquet lasting until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Wessel left for Kansas City, which place was the starting point for an extensive eastern trip. The presents were particularly handsome and costly, embracing gold and silver ware, china and furniture in great variety. In addition to those present from St. Joe and other cities, the following Lincolnites were in attendance, conveyed hither in a special car of the Burlington & Missouri River Railway company: Gov. John M. Thayer, Mayor and Mrs. A. H. Weir, Col. E. R. Sizer, H. M. Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ziemer, Louis Meyer, Dr. W. L. Dayton, W. Morton Smith, J. E. Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wessel, Mr. and Mrs. Max Kahn, Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldsmith, Messrs. R. Goldsmith, E. Kahn, Edgar Wessel, Mr. and Mrs. L. Meyer, Miss Pauline Goldsmith, Julius Wessel, Mrs. G. Adler and son, Mr. Wolfe. The following from Omaha: Mr. and Mrs. C. Stonehill, Edward Wessel, Julius Meyers, Edgar Snyder. From Philadelphia: A. Fisham and daughter, Henry Wessel. From Nebraska City: Miss Josie Wessel, L. Wessel, Sr.

Col. Sizer at the banquet presented the groom with a handsome engraved copy of congratulatory resolutions passed by the D. Marshall lodge, Knights of Pythias of this city.

The alumni chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity gave a banquet Wednesday evening at the Windsor hotel. The fraternity men and their ladies, numbering in all seventy-five, sat down to an elegant collation. The programme arranged included the following toasts:

"Before the War," Hon. Pat O. Ha wes, XI, '90. "After the War," W. E. Hardy, Alpha Epsilon, '97. "The Massachusetts," Frederick E. Shepherd, Alpha Epsilon, '97. "A Charge to Keep I Have," J. H. Ingwersen, Theta Theta, '88. "A Loyal Sig," Dan H. Wheeler, Jr., Alpha Epsilon, '98. "Our Wives and Mothers," C. C. Chase, Alpha Epsilon, '98. "Will a Sig Work?" Hon. J. V. Wolfe, Lambda, '90. "Why I Am a Sig," Judge W. R. Burton, Rho, '70. Mr. E. L. Palmer, general agent at Omaha of the Atchison, Topoka & Santa Fe railroad was a Lincoln visitor Saturday. Mr. Palmer has been in the Santa Fe service for a number of years having climbed the ladder from a minor position to the one he now so ably fills. He was formerly traveling passenger agent for the territory north of Kansas and west of the Mississippi river under general agent Mr. S. M. Osgood at Des Moines, later was made freight and passenger agent with headquarters at Omaha. Recently the territory was made general agent west of the Missouri river. That he is reliable and capable railroad has thus been demonstrated by various promotions. THE COURIER extends congratulations and hopes soon to hear of Mr. Palmer's further success as a more pleasant gentleman it would be most difficult to find.

The commencement exercises of the state university took place Wednesday morning with an unusually interesting program. The following is a list of the graduates: William T. Brown, John B. Fogarty, Chas. B. Gregory, Anna Rogers, Isabelle Rogers, Chas. Schell, Sara Schrab, William F. Taylor, Mary E. Wedgwood, Elmer L. Williams, Richard O. Williams, Fannie A. Baker, Frank E. Bishop, Ida Bonnell, Thomas E. Chappell, Rose E. Collins, Albert A. Fausolt, Henry A. Reese, William H. Wheeler, Rosa Bouton, Edith M. Brace, Clarence O. Fletcher, David A. Haggard, Harry B. Hicks, James W. McCrosky, Per A. Rydberg, Guy F. Thurber, Albert M. Troyer, Florence N. Jones, Chas. E. Tingley and Thomas A. Williams.

The University chorus and orchestra held their annual commencement concert in the University chapel Monday evening. "The Rose Maiden," was very successfully rendered under the direction of Professor and Mrs. Menzendorf. The chorus consisted of forty well cultivated voices which added materially to the success of the cantata. Solos were rendered by Mrs. C. M. Lippincott, Soprano; Miss Ida Bonnell, alto, Mr. H. J. W. Seaman, tenor; Mr. Thomas Berridge, bass, and Mr. H. Northam, baritone. The orchestra furnished instrumental music and special mention should be made of Mr. D. Hesse of Beatrice and Miss Louise Shaefer of Chicago conservatory of music, who are both violinists of much merit.

The family of Dr. W. S. Latta was most agreeably surprised Tuesday morning by the unexpected arrival of Dr. Samuel Latta of Woodridge, Cal., who was accompanied by his little son. This is the first visit of the doctor to his parents for five years, and the latter, as well as his sisters, Misses Minnie and Olive, have given him an exceedingly warm welcome. He expects to remain in Lincoln about ten days. The doctor's friends in this city, of whom there are many, are pleased to hear of the young Lincolnite's continued prosperity in his far away western home. They are also pleased to hear that amid the roses of California he has not lost his devotion to Lincoln and Nebraska.

It affords THE COURIER much pleasure to announce the forthcoming nuptials of Miss Ethel Marsland, of this city, and Mr. J. A. Drain of Spokane Falls, Wash. The former is widely known as one of the most popular and accomplished young lady residents in Lincoln while the prospective groom is a rising banker in his newly adopted home in the Northwest, having moved to Washington from Lincoln about a year ago. The arrangements for the happy event have not been fully completed; but it is understood that the ceremony will take place in the First Presbyterian church at five o'clock in the afternoon of the twenty-fourth of this month, Rev. Dr. E. H. Curtis, officiating.

Society is just now interested in the question. Does Mr. W. T. Meyer intend to marry while visiting at his old home, Quincy, Ill? His friends affirm that the visit has a tender object, while the gentleman himself strenuously denies the soft impeachment. However the preponderance of evidence seems to be with Mrs. Grundy, and it will not be at all surprising if, upon his return, Mr. Meyer is accompanied by one of Quincy's fair young ladies. He left Lincoln Monday evening and will be absent two or three weeks.

Mrs. Max H. Tilton was at home to her lady friends Saturday afternoon, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number availed themselves of her kind hospitality. Mrs. Tilton was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Dr. Dorris and the two ladies on this occasion as well as heretofore, proved very successful entertainers. A profusion of roses and smilax added greatly to the tasty arrangement of the pleasant home and dainty refreshments helped to round out a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Campbell of West Point, Neb., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Zehring. They are enjoying their wedding tour, and will leave here in a few days en route to Hot Springs, S. D. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Miss J. C. Stephenson of Dayton, O., a leading society lady and well liked by every one. The happy couple will travel west to the coast, taking the steamer there for Australia, and will be gone several years visiting the principal cities of the continent.

Misses Minnie and Olive Latta returned Monday from Alliance, Neb., where they spent a couple of weeks the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, formerly of this city. They were joined during their stay by Miss Nellie White and other Lincoln young folk, and their sojourn was rendered very pleasant by the hospitality of the Alliance people. A trip to Deadwood was an interesting feature of their visit and one that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Walworth, N. Y., June 10.—The Misses Anna Yeomans, daughters of L. T. Yeomans, and whose wife is the sister of Mrs. Grover Cleveland were married here today. The former became the wife of Joseph Reed of Beatrice, Neb., while the latter was married to Charles W. Hamilton of Denver. The ex-President and wife were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wessel gave a reception last night at their residence, 1723 M Street to relatives and intimate friends. The event was commemorative of the wedding of the host and hostess, yesterday being the first anniversary of that interesting occasion. The evening was agreeably and enjoyably spent with various social amusements.

The Beatrice Chautauqua Assembly have got out a very neat program with cuts of the different speakers and conductors of the different departments. Hon. Ignatius Donnelly and Prof. John Freeman will discuss the Bacon-Shakespeare question. Ex-President Hayes will also deliver and address on July 4th.

For the month of June draws to a close Mr. Sam E. Lowe will have graduated from the law department of Ann Arbor, where during the past two years he has won distinction both as an orator and student. Mr. Lowe is expected to arrive in Lincoln sometime about July 1.

The friends of Miss Lou M. Tait of Beatrice will be glad to learn through the Beatrice papers that there is a prospect that Ex-Mayor Tait who for some months past has resided with his family in Chicago will return to his old home to take up a permanent abode.

Sister Letitia of the Catholic school, died Tuesday at Council Bluffs. She left Lincoln last Saturday for the Mother Hospital at Dubuque, Iowa, but died before reaching her destination. She will be brought to Lincoln for interment in the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. J. C. Seacrest of the Journal left Wednesday night for Baltimore and other Eastern points. Mr. Seacrest with Chauncey M. Dewey, will this evening be a guest of the Press club of Baltimore at their annual banquet.

Mr. Archie Ensign went to Alliance Wednesday where he will spend about two weeks visiting with relatives. He will also visit Deadwood, Hot Springs and other towns in the Black Hills before his return.

Mr. Guy Smith of San Jose, Cal., is in the city visiting with his uncle, J. B. Strode. He is a son of General George S. Smith of Omaha, formerly surveyor-general of Nebraska.

Mrs. E. C. Hubbard of Lynchburg, Va., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gibson, 1827 L Street. Mrs. Hubbard is a niece of ex-Gov. Hubbard of New Hampshire.

George Brown of Superior, president of the Nebraska funeral directors' association, is in Lincoln for the purpose of attending the annual meeting of the association.

Mrs. Lucy A. Crandall of Denver, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Padock, last Thursday en route for Europe where she will spend the summer months.

Mrs. Fred Parks with her son Earnest, departed Friday for Manitou Springs where they will be joined later by other members of the family.

The funeral of Gail Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cotton, took place Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. C. B. Newman officiated.

The colored Methodist of Omaha and Lincoln held a picnic at Cushman park Friday. The Clipper band furnished the music for the occasion.

Mrs. E. J. Walter, Miss Mable and Master Raymond Sperry, formerly of Lincoln, but now of Aurora, Neb., are visiting friends in this city.

The senior's promenade took place Wednesday evening in Grant Memorial hall. It was very largely attended and proved a very successful affair.

Miss Nellie White is expected to return from Grand Island in the course of a couple of weeks. She will be accompanied by Miss Carrie Wasmer.

Auditor and Mrs. Thomas H. Benton and party, who are touring in the west and northwest, are expected to return sometime next week.

Mr. Cliff R. Cook, late private secretary to J. D. Macfarland of the First National, left Thursday for a trip to New York and Baltimore.

Mr. Will L. Seism, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias and Past Sachem of the Red Men, is in the city.

Man is often deceived in the age of a woman by her gray hair. Ladies, you can appear young and prevent this grayness by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

Hallett, the enterprising jeweler has just received another invoice of beautiful souvenir spoons which now makes his stock the largest and most varied in the city. You should see the new designs. Among them are the Fortyniners of California, The Pilgrims Landing, Niagara Falls, and 'The Chicago,' besides several different styles of Lincoln which are Hallett's own and exclusive designs. He has them in tea, coffee and orange spoons and in the latter has a genuine novelty. Its shape is not only very pretty but the newness about it is a sort of saw edge on one side of the spoon which is used to cut the veins in the orange when required. There's no place in Lincoln that so many novelties in spoons may be seen as there is at Hallett's.
